Democrats think it's enough to be in opposition to Trump and Republicans without putting forward their own vision for fixing the economy.	72	23	48	24	12	11	5
Democrats always talk about helping the working class, but when push comes to shove, they do not follow through.	71	24	45	26	13	11	4
Democrats have focused more on cultural and social issues like gender identity and racial equity than on kitchen table economic issues like wages and the cost of living.	65	30	44	22	14	17	5
Democrats keep running the same kinds of candidates instead of making room for new ideas and the next generation of leaders.	71	24	42	28	15	10	5
Democrats have become so dependent on campaign donations from the ultra-wealthy and Corporate America that business interests get prioritized over the needs of working- and middle-class Americans.	67	26	42	25	15	11	7
Democrats have moved too far to the left on economics and have become a socialist party.	57	36	39	18	14	22	6
Democrats failed to rein in the big banks and jail bankers responsible for the 2008 financial crisis that resulted in millions of Americans losing their jobs and homes, and don't stand up to corporate law breakers.	65	27	37	29	16	10	8
Democrats have become too friendly with big corporations and prioritize business needs over the needs of working- and middle-class Americans.*	60	33	34	26	17	16	8
Democrats' support for free-trade agreements like NAFTA has hurt American workers as companies shipped jobs overseas for cheaper labor and did not do enough to protect American workers and businesses from unfair foreign competition.	59	32	34	25	18	14	8
Democrats have become too anti-business and too anti-tech, pushing for unnecessary and over-the-top regulations and raising corporate tax rates that hurt small businesses and stop the creation and growth of new ones.	56	38	33	22	17	21	7
Democrats supported student loan forgiveness that benefits college graduates while doing nothing for working-class Americans who never went to college and are struggling to pay their bills.	57	38	33	24	16	22	5
Democrats supported COVID lockdowns and school closures that harmed the economy, small businesses, and children's education.	50	45	33	17	17	28	5
Democrats have focused too much on climate change and green energy policies that have raised energy costs and eliminated good-paying jobs.	53	42	31	22	17	25	5

[DECENT LIFE] Prices are too high, and Americans deserve more than just keeping their head above water. People who work hard and play by the rules should be able to afford the little things that make life worth living, like taking a vacation or spending more time with family and friends. The top economic priority should be ensuring that Americans get some breathing room to live a decent life.	69	19	7	3	3
[CONTROL] Prices are too high and it just adds to the sense that the average person's economic situation is out of their control no matter how hard they work. Most middle- and low-income Americans find themselves at the mercy of decisions by their employers, new technology that can threaten their jobs, or unexpected bills that can throw their lives off track. The top economic priority should be giving ordinary Americans more control over their lives and economic futures.	64	21	8	3	3
[OSSOFF] Prices are too high and the culture wars are used to divide us while companies rake in record profits. We aren't the problem and neither are our fellow Americans, but the political system pits us against each other so that we don't come together and fight back. The top economic priority should be changing our corrupt political system so that it represents the people, instead of ripping them off.	64	20	8	5	4
[UPWARD MOBILITY] Prices are too high, and hard work and ambition don't take you as far as they used to. People who are willing to put in the effort deserve the chance to make it rich and climb the income ladder. The top economic priority should be ensuring this country rewards success again.	59	24	10	3	4
[HANDS OFF] Prices are too high, and many businesses struggle to grow and create jobs because of government red tape and sky-high taxes. The government gets in the way of innovation and growth from the private sector, leaving everyone worse off in the long run. The top economic priority should be reducing government barriers so businesses can expand and the economy can grow.	53	23	10	7	7

[ECONOMIC STABILITY] Ensure that hard work leads to stability, so families are not constantly worried about making ends meet.	17	47
[DIGNITY OF WORK] Help workers earn more through higher wages and better jobs, rather than relying on government assistance.	18	46
[CONTROL] Give ordinary Americans more control over their lives--including more power over their careers, a stronger voice in the workplace, and more choices about where to live and raise their families.	13	40
[WORKER BENEFITS] Prevent the building up of excessive wealth at the top by ensuring workers also benefit from the successes of their employers through wage increases and other benefits.	13	39
[SHARED GROWTH] Ensure that new wealth is shared more fairly so that working- and middle-class families benefit from economic growth, not just those at the top.*	10	35
